

Stockport, 23 April 2010:

PRESS RELEASE

STOCKPORT BASED CLEANING CO AWARDED INTERNATIONAL QUALITY & ENVIRONMENTAL STANDARDS

ISO Accreditation for contract cleaning company for cleaning, janitorial and hygiene services.

Following external audits of Aquarius Cleaning Services cleaning and janitorial supplies systems and procedures, the High Lane based company have been accredited with the international quality standard ISO9001 and environmental standard ISO14001.

Director, Mark Benson, said 'I am proud that we have been able to gain recognition for the standard work of our staff produce, the quality of the janitorial items we supply and the customer focused re-cycling elements we have established within the business'

'I know that our clients benefit from the streamlined approach we use in accordance with the standards. I have also been impressed with the help and advice given to us by Offerton based consultant Stuart Powell and Business Link North West'

'We employ over 20 local people and use Stockport based suppliers where possible. The implementation of the standards enable us to work smarter and longer term attract more business so that we can continue to contribute positively towards the local economy'

For more information please call Sharon on 01663 764029

PHOTO BELOW – from left to right Mark Benson (Aquarius Cleaning Services, Director), Stuart Powell (ISO/Business Consultant), William Farrell (Aquarius Cleaning Services, Area Manager)

